Professional Summary

I'm a Full Stack Developer with 4 years of experience, specializing in frontend development with React, Next.js, and TypeScript. I'm passionate about creating modern, functional, and scalable interfaces, blending design and logic. I've also worked with Node.js, SQL databases, and cloud deployment tools. Currently expanding my skills in iOS development with Swift and UI/UX design. I'm looking for a team where I can contribute, grow, and build meaningful products.
